WISDOM OF THE DAY

Wealth, prestige and power - all are insignificant and insignificant compared to the greatness of the heart. The heart alone is the only jewel in the world where happiness resides (Adalbert Stifter)

We wish you a pleasant, relaxing cruise and will do our best to that you feel comfortable with us on board the MS Crucevita at all times...

Ladies and gentlemen, dear guests,

Your Crucemundo Cruise Director is Yaro Panyko

Subject to change! Please note the current daily program!

Cabin key: You received magnetic cards for your cabin when you checked in. Please always close the doors when you leave your cabin (e.g. mosquitoes and other possible vermin stay outside).

Unfortunately, there are more pickpockets and trick thieves in the big cities. Never allow yourself to be approached, not even by "so-called security police officers" - we ask you to be especially careful in Amsterdam and Brussels!

Meals: Please refer to the daily program for meal times. During breakfast, please tell your table service what you would like for lunch and dinner. The menu selection is on the table. For dinner, we ask that you arrive in good time: you should be in the restaurant no later than 10 minutes after the start to ensure smooth service.

Air Conditioning! Our system has air conditioning units that can cool or heat, if you need help setting it up correctly in your cabin - ask at reception.

Tipping: At the end of the cruise, you have the opportunity to thank our crew with a personal tip. You will receive envelopes for this on the penultimate day. The tip is divided fairly among the crew at the end. Your cruise director Yaro is not part of the crew.

Onboard ABC

Dear passengers! Cruise company "Cruce mundo", captain of MS "Crucevita" and its crew are glad to greet you onboard our ship and wish you a pleasant journey! You can find all necessary information in our "Onboard ABC". If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact representatives of "Cruce mundo", who are always happy to help you.

ORIENTATION

You are onboard two-deck boutique style cruise motor vessel. For your better orientation, you can see the deck plan in the info folder in your cabin and there are pointers on each deck for you to look about easier. You can also ask one of our crew members to help you! By the end of the cruise you will know this ship better than we do 😊

DAILY PROGRAM

You already have a program for the first day. Every day after dinner you will find such program for the next day in your cabin. There you can find timings for all the activities on board, descriptions of ports of call, weather forecast and other useful information. We also call it "on-board journal", because many of our guests collect them and bring them home as a good souvenir from the cruise.

We will also make announcements in public areas over the radio to invite you for lunch or dinner or excursions or other activities.

PASSPORTS

We took your passport at the Reception Desk to register you in our system and tomorrow morning you can take it back. Please, keep it in a safe place.

KEYS

When you leave the ship, you should give your key to the receptionist. In exchange you will be given a boarding pass with the contact telephone number of the ship. When you come back, we make this exchange once again, but vice versa. This system lets us know if all of the guests are on board or not. Before the departure we always check if you handed in your boarding passes to know if you are aboard. If you do not leave your keys at the reception you have a very big chance to stay ashore. Do not risk!

DRESS-CODE

Dress-code onboard is casual. We strongly recommend you to wear comfortable shoes and clothes for tours in ports of call. We do not recommend to wear shorts and to come topless to the restaurant. In the end of the trip there will be a festive dinner, so the recommended dress-code for it is smart-casual.

SAFETY

You are travelling by the vessel, coincided with high rates of safety, attended by reliable staff. Nevertheless, there is always an alight possibility of accident situation. In case of accident we gently ask you to stay calm and follow staff's directions. Life-jacket is situated in the wardrobe in your cabin.

Smoking onboard the ship is permitted only in the back part of the Sundeck.

There are some safety rules on board the ship:
