

Inverclyde is one of Scotland's smallest regions with an area of 61 sq miles and a population of approximately 80,000. It is situated to the south of the River Clyde in west central Scotland. Despite its size, Inverclyde has a rich diversity of landscapes with unrivalled scenery and spectacular views across the River Clyde to the Argyll Hills and Highlands. Clyde Muirshiel Regional Park lies within Inverclyde and offers opportunities for a wide range of activities including walking, cycling and water based sports. Greenock is the main town in Inverclyde. Today's economy is mainly in the service sector.
