EXPLORE MORE IN ST PETERSBURG

Saint Petersburg is home to numerous parks and gardens. Some of the most famous of which are situated in the southern suburbs, including one of the largest English gardens in Europe, Pavlovsk. Sosnovka is the largest park within the limits of the city, occupying 240 hectares. The Summer Garden is the oldest one dating back to the early 18th century. It is situated on the southern bank of the Neva at the head of the Fontanka, and is famous for its cast iron railings and marble sculptures.

TIP OF THE DAY: Don't forget to check your freestyle daily to keep up to date with all the on-board activities.
