ART

Tate Liverpool is the home of modern art in the north and is one of the most visited galleries outside of London, staging international exhibitions of Chagall, Mondrian, Klimt, Picasso and Monet to mention a few. As well as recently changing round its permanent collection, Tate Liverpool welcomes an exhibition by Matisse and an extensive exhibition of post-war European artwork this season.

The stunning Walker Art Gallery on William Brown Street houses an incredible collection of paintings, sculpture and decorative arts spanning over six hundred years, including works by Hockney, Degas, Turner and Rembrandt.

The Bluecoat is a cutting edge arts centre housed in a 300-year-old building, offering a programme of art, literature, music and dance. It's also home to a wide range of artists and creative businesses.

new exhibitions exploring digital and contemporary issues, as well as housing four cinema screens. Nearer the waterfront, Open Eye Gallery is one of the country's leading photography spaces with globally-renowned artists exhibiting throughout the year.

HERITAGE

Like the Great Wall of China and the Taj Mahal, Liverpool is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Take a walk around Albert Dock, the largest collection of Grade I listed buildings in the country, and an absolute must-see. The Dock is an integral part of the fabric of the city and dates back to 1840, but it is far from just a heritage site. It is home to bars, restaurants, museums and some of Liverpool's most popular visitor attractions.

Liverpool's buildings tell the story of the city. Liverpool has some of the best examples of neoclassical architecture in the world, most notably the magnificent St George's Hall. Visit Central Library to see how the original Picton Library has been skilfully meshed with a modern design, and stroll down Hope Street to see both of Liverpool's famous cathedrals, the soaring neo-gothic Anglican Cathedral (the largest in the UK) and the modernist Catholic Metropolitan Cathedral of Christ the King with its glorious stained glass windows.

Everyman Theatre

Visit the waterfront to admire the Three Graces – the Cunard Building, Port of Liverpool Building and of course the Liver Building, with its two Liver birds, the symbols of the city, perching 300 feet above the streets below.

Take a RIBA tour to learn more about Liverpool's architecture. The city also has a variety of fully qualified Blue and Green Badge guides who offer services from individual walking tours to large coach tours. There is a huge selection of special interest tours too such as photography, ghost tours, comedy tours and of course, the Fab Four.

MUSEUMS

Liverpool has one of the most impressive collections of museums in the country. Start with the Museum of Liverpool, opened in 2011 in a landmark waterfront building, which was the UK's first national museum dedicated to the history of a city. Visitors can explore how Liverpool's port, its people and its creative, industrial and sporting history have shaped the city.

Many museums and galleries are located around the Albert Dock, such as the Merseyside Maritime Museum and hard - hitting International Slavery Museum, where you can find out all about the companies, people and ships connected to this port city.

St George's Quarter, close to Lime Street station, is home to World Museum, where you can discover treasures from around the world, meet live creatures and explore outer space.

DRAMA AND COMEDY

Drama in Liverpool has a fantastically strong reputation, and the region has plenty of top theatre performance spaces.

The legendary Everyman and Playhouse theatres are responsible for launching the career of many celebrated actors including Bill Nighy, Julie Walters and the late, great Pete Postlethwaite. Both offer an eclectic programme of home-grown and touring theatre, and frequently stage world premieres. This is followed by the famous Rock 'n' Roll Panto right through December and January.

The Empire is the largest theatre in Liverpool and stages the big musicals and spectacular shows, often straight from the West End.

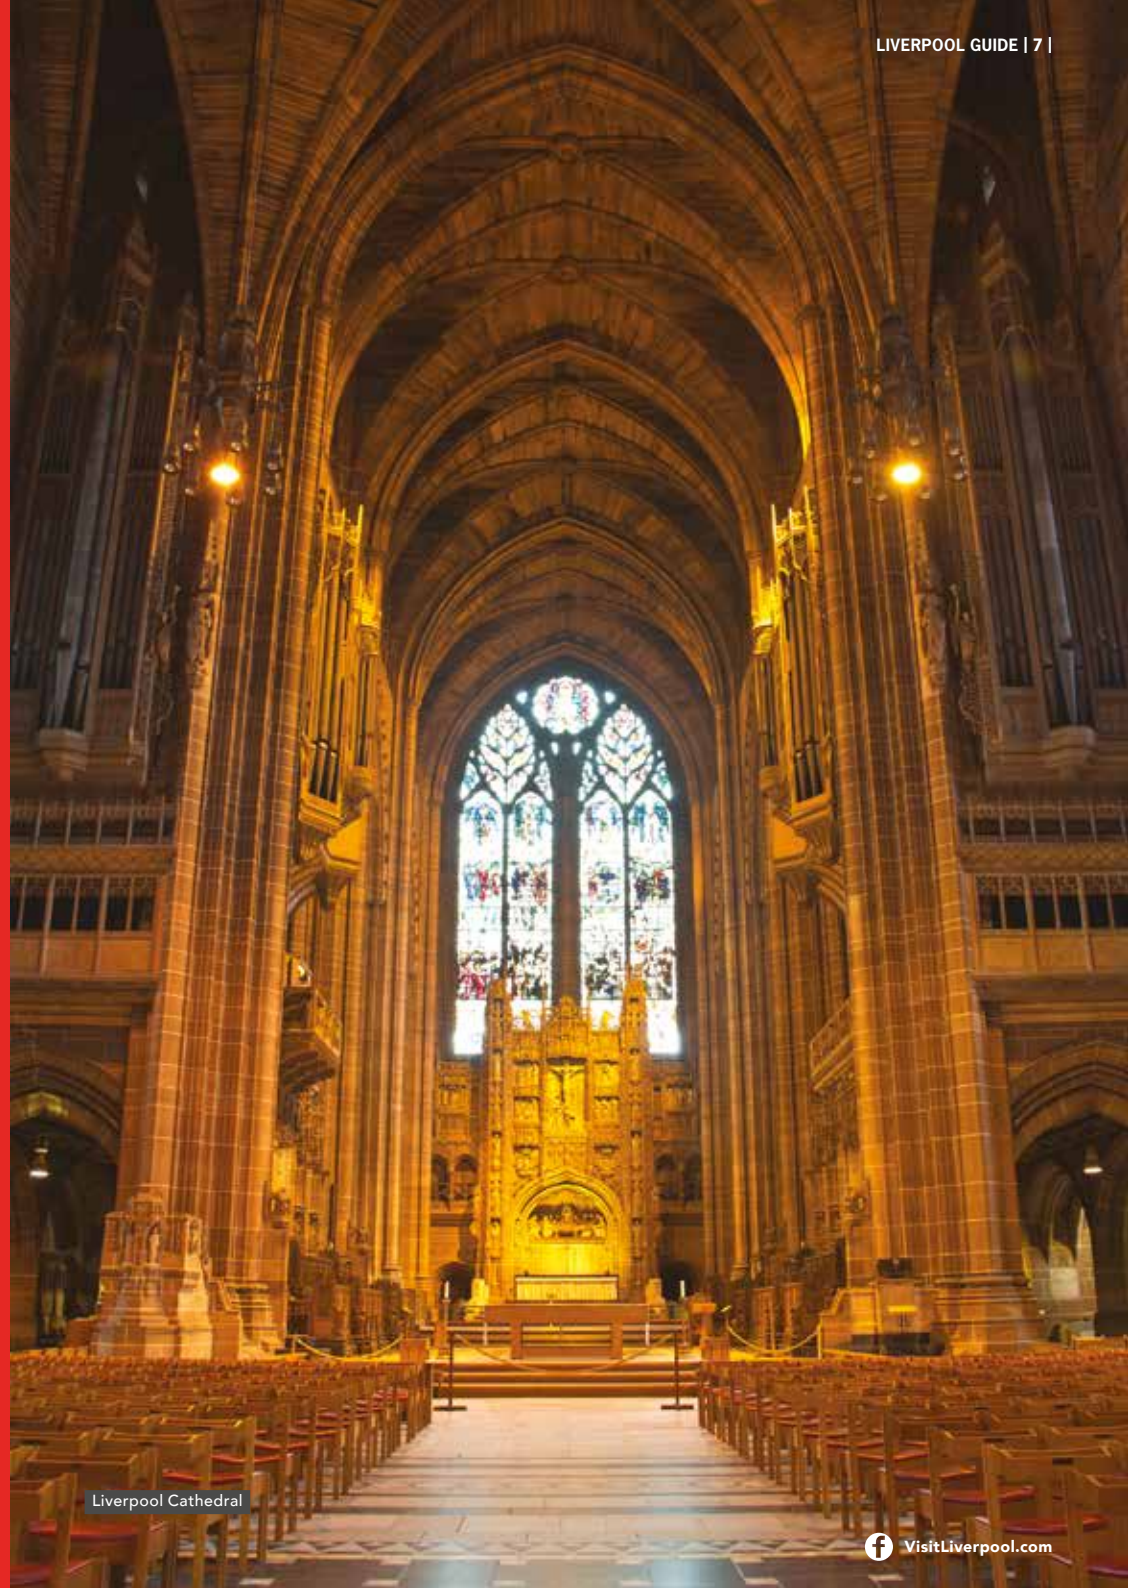

The Royal Court offers a range of long-running plays and one-off nights, and the Epstein Theatre is Grade II listed with a striking interior and hosts entertainment of all kinds.

Smaller theatres such as the Lantern Theatre and Unity Theatre are no less innovative and showcase local, national and international talent in a more intimate setting.

The Floral Pavilion in New Brighton, Wirral, and Southport Theatre and Convention Centre both have varied programmes of theatre, family shows, comedy and music.

Many bars, clubs and theatres host regular comedy nights such as Comedy Central Comedy Club at Blue Bar & Grill, Laughterhouse at The Slaughter House and The Liverpool Comedy Cellar.

The Echo Arena hosts all the big names, with recent headliners including Jack Whitehall, Russell Howard and Miranda Hart.

MUSIC

BIRTHPLACE OF THE BEATLES AND HOME TO MORE NUMBER ONE HITS THAN ANY OTHER CITY, LIVERPOOL'S MUSIC SCENE HAS A PROUD HISTORY, DYNAMIC PRESENT AND BRIGHT FUTURE.

An absolute must-see is the Beatles Story at Albert Dock, a brilliant tour through The Beatles' lives, with fascinating memorabilia and insights from friends and family. This year they are celebrating 75 years since John Lennon's birth by hosting a new exhibit, the final piano he played in public, as well as a collection of photographs taken by Bob Gruen in New York. And check out Beatles Story Pier Head for the fantastic British Invasion exhibition.

The Cavern Club on Mathew Street is the most famous club in the world; stop off here for a beer and live music. Fab Four fans should also take a Magical Mystery Tour through Strawberry Field, Penny Lane and other iconic Beatles locations, or visit Mendips and 20 Forthlin Road, the childhood homes of John Lennon and Sir Paul McCartney.

Liverpool's music scene is no less lively today. Liverpool International Music Festival, International Beatleweek, Sound City and Africa Oyé are just a few of the festivals taking place throughout the year, covering every kind of music

The list of previous performances reads like a veritable A-Z of music superstardom, as performers appreciate the fervent reception from Liverpool audiences. Ellie Goulding, Simply Red and Duran Duran are a few of the highlights this season.

Classical fans should visit the beautiful and newly refurbished art deco Philharmonic Hall and take in a performance by the world-renowned Royal Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra, led by charismatic chief conductor Vasily Petrenko. The Hall also stages contemporary and classical music by a host of famous names.

Find out if Liverpool Welsh Choral is performing when you're in town. The unique programme is well worth catching, with everything from the Beatles to opera.

NIGHTLIFE

LIVERPUDLIANS LIKE TO SOCIALISE. THEIR SENSE OF FUN AND LOVE OF A GREAT NIGHT OUT GUARANTEE THAT THE CITY'S BARS ARE LIVELY AND ITS NIGHTLIFE IS LEGENDARY – SO MUCH IN FACT THAT THE USERS OF TRIPADVISOR VOTED LIVERPOOL AS BRITAIN'S BEST NIGHTLIFE DESTINATION.

Santa Chupitos

Liverpool is a city that is very proud of its nightlife, both due to the variety and quality on offer. From superclubs to pubs with dogs, a thriving gay quarter to comedy venues on the waterfront, dance warehouses to concept bars, Liverpool at night has many faces.

The Liverpool clubbing scene took off with the legendary Cream in the nineties and has been bouncing ever since. Make sure you catch Cream at Nation if you can, or the legendary Garlands, the ultimate nightclub for party people.

Seel Street and the area around it have undergone a major transformation in the past decade or so, to the point that it is now a go-to for nightlife. No matter what you're looking for, you'll find it here. Glamour and Latin dancers in a former Polish church: Alma de Cuba. Hawaii'an-themed cocktail bar: Aloha. Traditional pub with top-notch food: The Monro. Hot dogs, steins and a bar with a secret code: Salt Dog Slims. Bar with the city's coolest soundtrack: Motel. This is without even mentioning Santa Chupitos, Almost Famous or Empire. And of course, if you're staying out until the bitter end, The Peacock and Heebie Jeebies are always good for a dance.

There are also traditional pubs on virtually every street corner, where the welcome will be warm and the beer just the right temperature. Try Thomas Rigby's on Dale Street, one of Liverpool's oldest pubs that offers a range of 40+ world beers and eight cask conditioned ales, or head for The Fly in the Loaf on Hardman Street for premium Belgian and German beers. Ye Hole in Ye Wall is a really traditional hostelry, as well as Liverpool's reputedly oldest pub, offering heaps of atmosphere, great beer and lots of old photos of the city.

Alma de Cuba

The Baltic Triangle is the hippest area of the city, and has seen a sea-change in recent years. Camp and Furnace is the obvious place to start. The truly unique space houses everything from a bar packed with international beers to Eurovision parties, Scandinavian festivals, Biennial installations and weekly food slams. It's perfectly complemented just around the corner by the Baltic Social, on the ground floor of Elevator Studios and offering a more intimate setting than its neighbour.

Horse racing is huge in the city; Aintree and Haydock racecourses offer top-quality racing including the world-famous Grand National Festival at Aintree each spring. The Crabbie's Grand National has been hosted at Aintree Racecourse since 1839 and today attracts a global TV audience of 600 million.

EAT

LIVERPOOL CITY REGION'S DINING SCENE IS FANTASTICALLY VARIED, FROM SLEEK FINE DINING TO INDEPENDENT BOHEMIAN BISTROS AND HIGH-STREET FAVOURITES, AND FROM MODERN BRITISH TO THE FINEST FOODS FROM AROUND THE WORLD.

The Georgian Hope Street Quarter is fast becoming a food hub; home to renowned restaurants The London Carriage Works and 60 Hope Street, plus Host, and the Quarter. Having opened its doors in late 2014, the Art School Restaurant is now well established as the venue for elegant fine dining using the best produce and ingredients.

On Bold Street, you'll find world foods, tea shops, and fabulous independent places to eat – we recommend Bretta and Co. deli and bistro, or LEAF.

In the business district, you can dine high above the city at Panoramic 34, or try Fazenda, located in Exchange Flags.

Try the Delifonseca restaurants - Fonseca's on Stanley Street or Delifonseca Dockside - winners of the Taste Liverpool category at the region's 2015 Tourism Awards.

Albert Dock is also a popular place to eat. Smuggler's Cove, Gusto, Blue Bar and Grill, Circo and PanAm are just some of the choices.

Southport is excellent for dining out too. Try the trendy V-Café at the Vincent Hotel on Lord Street, or Bistro Vêrité a fabulous family run restaurant in Birkdale village. Over on Wirral Peninsula, the Yellow Room at the Hillbark Hotel in Frankby serves delicious food in sumptuous surroundings, whilst Fraiche in Oxton village is a discreet and understated Michelin-starred restaurant.

Local produce is of a very high standard, with Wirral and Formby asparagus, Southport shrimps, Knowsley lamb, and Liverpool beer and gin some of the stars of the scene. The region also boasts fabulous food festivals such as Liverpool Food and Drink Festival, Farm Feast and Southport Food and Drink Festival, and local farmers' markets.

Liverpool's hotels also have an impressive range of quality restaurants, from Marco Pierre White at Hotel Indigo to Blakes at Hard Days Night Hotel. The UK's oldest Chinese community can be found in Liverpool, and so can some of the best Chinese restaurants. Try the Chinatown area around Berry Street, making time to admire the Chinese Arch.

Antony Gormley's Another Place

Liverpool has more parks than Paris; Calderstones, Croxteth and Sefton Park are just a few favourites. Head to Sefton Park to see the beautiful glass-panelled Victorian Palm House or the Tudor splendour of Speke Hall with its packed events programme.

Further afield, Crosby Beach is a must-see, not only for its beautiful views but for Antony Gormley's Another Place; 100 cast-iron, life-size figures spread out along three kilometres of the shore and out to sea.

In Southport, be rejuvenated by the refreshing breeze as you stroll along Southport Pier, enjoy a picnic in Southport's Botanic Gardens, and embrace the traditional amusements of a grand seaside town. Close by, explore the sand dunes along the Sefton coast and try and spot a rare red squirrel at Formby Nature Reserve.

Alternatively, head across to Wirral and stride out to Hilbre Island or along the Wirral Way. There's also Birkenhead Park, acknowledged to be the first publicly funded park in Britain and a model for Central Park in New York.

A trip to Wirral should include a visit to the historic village of Port Sunlight with its late 19th century cottages. Don't miss the Port Sunlight Museum and the Lady Lever Art Gallery.

New Brighton is a rejuvenated seaside resort, with the Floral Pavilion Theatre at its heart plus plenty of family-friendly activities.

Knowsley Safari Park is well worth a visit – with over 700 exotic animals, amusement rides and a fantastic sea lion show, only eight miles from the city centre and in the parklands of the stunning Knowsley Hall.

LIVERPOOL WATERFRONT

CUNARD'S THREE QUEENS MAY HAVE GOT ALL THE HEADLINES WHEN THEY MET IN AN HISTORIC EVENT ON THE MERSEY, BUT THEY'RE NOT THE ONLY SHIPS THAT HAVE BEEN GETTING THE ATTENTION ON THE RIVER RECENTLY.

The Ferry 'Cross the Mersey has been famous since Gerry and the Pacemakers immortalised it in the heyday of Merseybeat. Sir Peter Blake – the artist behind the cover of Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Hearts Club Band – was commissioned by Liverpool Biennial and Tate Liverpool to 'dazzle' one of the ferries, Snowdrop. The result is a magnificent psychedelic design that can be seen crossing the river right through the day on the River Explorer cruise, and is a must-do when visiting the city. The ticket also includes entry to the U-Boat Story attraction at Woodside ferry terminal.

If your appetite for The Beatles has been whet on the ferry, call in to The Beatles Story site at the ferry terminal. This is one of two sites (the other is just along the water at Albert Dock), and your ticket covers entrance to both for a 48-hour period. The Beatles Story is an interactive museum which charts the story of the four lads who changed the world, from the first days through their Hamburg adventures and Beatlemania to the later solo careers. It's fantastically detailed and accessible for all ages.

The waterfront is also home to some of the city's enviable collection of national museums. The newest major addition to the Liverpool skyline is the distinctive white lines of the Museum of Liverpool, which was built in 2011 to sit alongside the Three Graces. Inside, the museum explores how the port, its people, their cultural and sporting significance have shaped the city's story. You can climb aboard a full-size replica of an old Overhead Railway carriage, sing a city hit on the karaoke or experience life in an 1870 Liverpool house.

Another popular venue is Merseyside Maritime Museum and International Slavery Museum, a former warehouse which has four floors of exhibits looking at the influence the water has had on Liverpool over the last three centuries. And like all of the city's national museums, they are completely free.

Tate Liverpool has a permanent collection boasting artwork from names such as Picasso, Matisse and Cezanne. It has also built a reputation for outstanding exhibitions, with its recent Chagall, Pollock and Warhol shows winning widespread critical acclaim. SHOP

IF YOU LOVE SHOPPING, YOU'LL FIT IN WELL HERE; LIVERPUDLIANS LIKE TO LOOK GOOD AND SET TRENDS. SHOPPERS ARE SPOILT FOR CHOICE BETWEEN GLEAMING CITY-CENTRE SHOPPING CENTRES, BOUTIQUE ARCADES, BOHEMIAN STREETS AND FARMERS' MARKETS.

Unsurprisingly, the city is now a top five UK shopping destination.

Liverpool ONE, right in the heart of the city, is the huge open-air shopping district that is home to more than 160 famous high street and designer names, from John Lewis to Zara, designer favourites Ted Baker, Reiss, Hobbs classic womenswear and the only Beauty Bazaar Harvey Nichols in the country.

The exclusive Metquarter is the place to find select fashion and beauty outlets such as Gieves & Hawkes, Hugo Boss, MAC and Armani Exchange.

Don't miss the ultra-fashionable Cavern Walks, home to the Vivienne Westwood store and famed designer boutique Cricket.

The Bluecoat is a charming Grade I listed arts centre in the heart of the city which also houses a range of small shops selling all sorts of lovely contemporary crafts, eclectic homewares and funky fashion.

The city centre area has over 400 shops and includes Church Street, home to megastores such as Marks and Spencer and Forever 21. It also incorporates two theatres, numerous restaurants and bars and a fun-packed annual programme of events.

Lonely Planet, no less, rated Bold Street as one of the best shopping streets in the country, and it's easy to see why. With independent stores like Utility and Matta's selling everything from world foods to funky clothes to records to art to home-baked goods, it's well worth spending a couple of hours browsing.

Shopping outside the city centre has much to offer too. Lark Lane, south of the city centre, is full of bohemian boutiques and street markets. Lord Street in Southport is an elegant parade of Victorian arcades with a whole host of smart shops. In Wirral, try West Kirby for boutique shopping, or the local farmers' markets and farm shops for delicious local produce.

CRUISE

LIVERPOOL IS KNOWN GLOBALLY FOR ITS CLOSE LINKS WITH THE SEA. IT IS A CITY WITH A RICH MARITIME HISTORY STRETCHING BACK CENTURIES, AND THE WATER PLAYS A HUGE ROLE IN LIVERPOOL LIFE TO THIS DAY.

The iconic waterfront, largely built in connection with maritime trade, is the defining image of the city and getting the 'ferry 'cross the Mersey' is a must for all visitors – especially now it has been given a special dazzle design by Sir Peter Blake. While freight ships are still a regular sight on the river, these days they are joined by something a little more luxurious.

Liverpool Cruise Terminal welcomes cruise ships from around the world into that famous waterfront, which is a key part of Liverpool's status as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Its strength was recently recognised by Seatrade, who voted Liverpool 'destination of the year' for 2015.

Liverpool has a proud history of cruises, as seen in 2015 when Cunard celebrated its 175th anniversary in its spiritual home. More than a million spectators lined the banks of the Mersey to see the historic meeting of Three Queens – Queen Victoria, Queen Mary 2 and Queen Elizabeth. The Cunard fleet met for the first time, performing a number of synchronised manoeuvres which have never been done before. Then on 4th July Queen Mary 2 recreated the first Transatlantic passenger cruise as it sailed from Liverpool to Boston and New York.

However, there was much more than this - 50 ships berthed in 2015, bringing over 80,000 passengers and the 2016 schedule is already packed with returning ships and a number of new arrivals. Ships are welcomed right into the heart of the waterfront, in the shadow of the Three Graces – the Cunard Building, Port of Liverpool Building and the Royal Liver Building, atop which sit the city's 'guardians', the Liver birds. These three buildings ensure a striking first impression of the city.

Just further along the waterfront is Albert Dock, a complex of dock buildings and warehouses first opened in 1846. Nowadays, they are home to a fantastic range of restaurants, cafes, bars, museums and clubs for every taste, from morning to late night. There is also the outstanding Museum of Liverpool, a £72 million development which is the most visited museum outside of the capital.

Since opening in 2007, Liverpool Cruise Terminal has proved extremely popular. It has welcomed inaugural calls from names such as Silhouette and Britannia, and was voted Cruise Critic's UK Best Port of Call in 2013 and 2014. This phenomenal growth is a symbol of the city's renaissance over the past decade, and as more cruise passengers love their time here, will continue to grow with confirmed calls in 2016 and 2017.

For more information on the terminal and the range of options available to passengers, please visit: www.cruise-liverpool.com and talk Cruise on Twitter @CruiseLpool
